Boatyard: Explanatory notes

Admission, and retention, of any craft, gear, fitting, trailer, cradle, etc. in Boatyard is subject to permission being granted by the Harbour

There is one power outlet which accepts tokens – cost €1 (4kw electricity) – tokens available in the Harbour Lodge

Before using the Boatyard an applications form should be completed and accompanied by the appropriate payment [shown on form] and forwarded to:

The Harbour Master
Dun Laoghaire Harbour
Harbour Lodge
Crofton Road
Dun Laoghaire

Cheques should be made out to “Dun Laoghaire Rathdown County Council”

To make credit card payments you should call 01 2801018 - Opt. 1

Please note the Senior Citizen rate which is noted on the application form – 65 before 30 May

Following acceptance of a storage application a receipt is issued together with a validated Storage Sticker which should be affixed immediately to the craft or trailer where it can best be seen. If a gate fob has been requested it will also be issued at this time. [Gate fobs are required to operate the entrance/exit gate of the Boatyard and are only issued following receipt of a refundable payment of €20]

Any craft or article in the Boatyard that has not been authorised for storage, or storage fee has lapsed, or those failing to display a current Storage Sticker are liable to be impounded and /or disposed of by the Harbour

Please Note:

All craft, gear, fittings, trailers, cradles, etc. in the Boatyard are placed there on the acceptance of the conditions of the Storage Licence, which conditions includes such storage as being at the owners risk, and indemnifying the harbour in relation to such use.

Unaccompanied Boat Trailers, Cradles, etc attract Storage Fees for all seasons (Summer April 16 to October 15: Winter October 16 to April 15) that they occupy the Boatyard. Payment for accompanied trailers, cradles, etc is included with the Boat Storage Fees, a double payment for both the trailer and its occupying boat, not being required. Please note that there is insufficient space for Multihulls

NB

Permission will not normally be given in the Summer Season for the Storage of any craft over 6 metres in length, or their gear, fitting, trailer, cradle, etc.

THE BOATYARD IS NOT TO BE USED FOR PARKING VEHICLES – CLAMPING IN OPERATION
